Live on the property and craft your own future, the sky is the limit! The home itself is an immaculate 1,539sqft hillside bungalow, originally built in 1960 but stripped down to the studs and rebuilt / added on to in 2002. The yard is engulfed in native plants, and features plentiful shrubs, fruit trees and parkland forest which invites nature of all kinds to the property. Your own walking trails are meticulously cut through the forest, providing you with a private oasis allowing you to reconnect with nature. The farmable land brings in passive income annually, and with pavement to the driveway there is no limit to the convenience this property provides.
